White bread chewed in the mouth, to a pap or soft paste, has been often experimented for curing divers green wounds, aches, bruises, ulcers and other hurts and sorances, applied as a Poultess.

Concerning Aſtrological Predictions.

IT has been matter of Lamentation to divers Pious minds, to ſee ſuch dark Stuff Offered to the Publick, in this Land of Light, as has been done, by Mr. TULLY in his Almanacks, the direct tendency whereof is, to withdraw Perſons from a holy Reliance in God's Will & Providence, and to precipitate the minds of ſuch as are lovers of ſpecious Novelties, into a ſinfull love of that Soul-bewitching Vanity of Star-Prophecy, commonly called Aſtology, the foundations of which are meer Chimæra's.

There was once a Pagan TULLY, that wrote againſt this way of Divination; and is it not great pity, that now a Profeſſed Chriſtian TULLY ſhould uſe it? In his Almanacks beſides ſome Erected Figures, he gives us Aſtrological Predictions of future Contingencies in mundane Affairs, both Civil & Eccleſiaſtical, from Eclipſes & Solar Ingreſſes into Cardinal Points: But is it not Vanity & Impiety, to attempt the Revelation of Secret things that belong unto the Lord our God? He tells us of the Houſes of his Erected Figures, and of their Lords & Ladies, with their Dignities, and gives us the ſignification of thoſe Houſes and Governours. But thoſe 12 Houſes are but Arbitrary things, built by the brain of man, and no ſolid reaſon can be given for their Number, much leſs for their ſignification. As for their Lords and Ladies, true Chriſtians are not diſmayed at them: For (ſetting aſide ſome Influences of the Sun & Moon) the ſuppoſed Natures, Vertues, Fabulous Sexes, Houſes, Dignities, Fortitudes & Debilities of the Planets, are but Heathenish Whimzies and Ridiculous Triſles. Of the ſame nature are his Conceipts of the Dominion of the Moon in Man's body, as it paſſeth under the 12 Signs: and by the Phyſical Obſervations in his late Almanack, about Letting Blood, Purging &c. when the Moon is in ſuch or ſuch a Sign, are things diſclaimed by the greateſt part of Phyſicians: For, the Fictions of Aſtrologers, about the Vertues & Qualities of the 12 Zodiacal Signs, are but groundleſs Speculations. Conſidering that the imaginary Circle, called the Zodiac is but at pleaſure (for Doctrine ſake) Geometrically divided into 12 Signes. But moſt of all Impiouſly and Irrationally was it acted in his laſt years Almanack, to ſet down a KING'S Nativity: and leaſt any ſhould hereby be deluded to give heed to the Genethliacal part of Aſtology, which vainly pretends to diſcover the ſeveral Accidents of the Natives Life,

Leſt

Let me add, Is it rational to think, that 7 wandring Stars, which can Ejaculate but 7 sorts of Beams, should suffice to conclude in one onely short moment, that great variety of innumerable Accidents, that shall befall all and every of those Infants, that at one and the same instant, enter into the World, from the time of their Birth to that of their Death? and that Planets should cause such effects, though at that time under the earth, when we find by experience, that the Sun being under us, its rayes cannot pierce through the Globe of the Earth to reach unto us? What reason is there, that such Impressions on Infants, should not be taken off, by other Impressions that are made every day, seeing the Planets immit their beams in any Position? Nor indeed can the true moment of a Child's birth be known; Clocks differ, Sun-dials are not to be trusted unto, Astrolabes are fallible, nor at hand at Nativities, & if they were, cannot at all times be made use of. The Astrologers several wayes of Rectifying Nativities, may be demonstrated to be as vain & fallible as their Judgments on the Nativities are. The Operations of the Directions in the said Nativity, there spoken of, are but fanciful Imaginations; for, those Directions, being but Arbitrary Dimensions, cannot be capable of any Effect, forever Operation. And the measure of time, there set down, do's vainly pretend to discover times which GOD has put in His own power. The Revolution also, there mentioned, is an absurdity; for what Influence can be rationally assigned of any point which arose in the said Geniture, upon that which arises in the time of the Revolution? Likewise the Transits, there spoken of, are but impertinent extravagancies

As for Meteorology, it is meerly Conjectural: How often is it Stormy in own part of N. E while in an other, at the same time they enjoy a Calm? Many times it Rains upon one Town, & not upon another a few Miles off. You may your selves observe such Weather-Conjectures to be fallible, by those instances of them, which (for that end) I have given you in the Preceding Pages, according to the Common Rules of Meteorology. Perhaps the most Probable way of Prædicting the weather, would be that of the famous Old Lord HOWARD: His manner was to take such Almanacks, as Tallies; and where they wrote, Foul, he wrote, Fair, where they wrote, Good, he wrote, Bad; and his Contradictions, be found frequently truer than their Predictions.
